

Commissioners,

I am writing to object to the sexual nature of the dancing and offensive content of the song lyrics contained in the entire NFL Superbowl Halftime show. The finale with Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake was obviously reason for parents to be offended and outraged!

The nature of the "entertainment" was in poor taste and certainly not appropriate for family viewing.